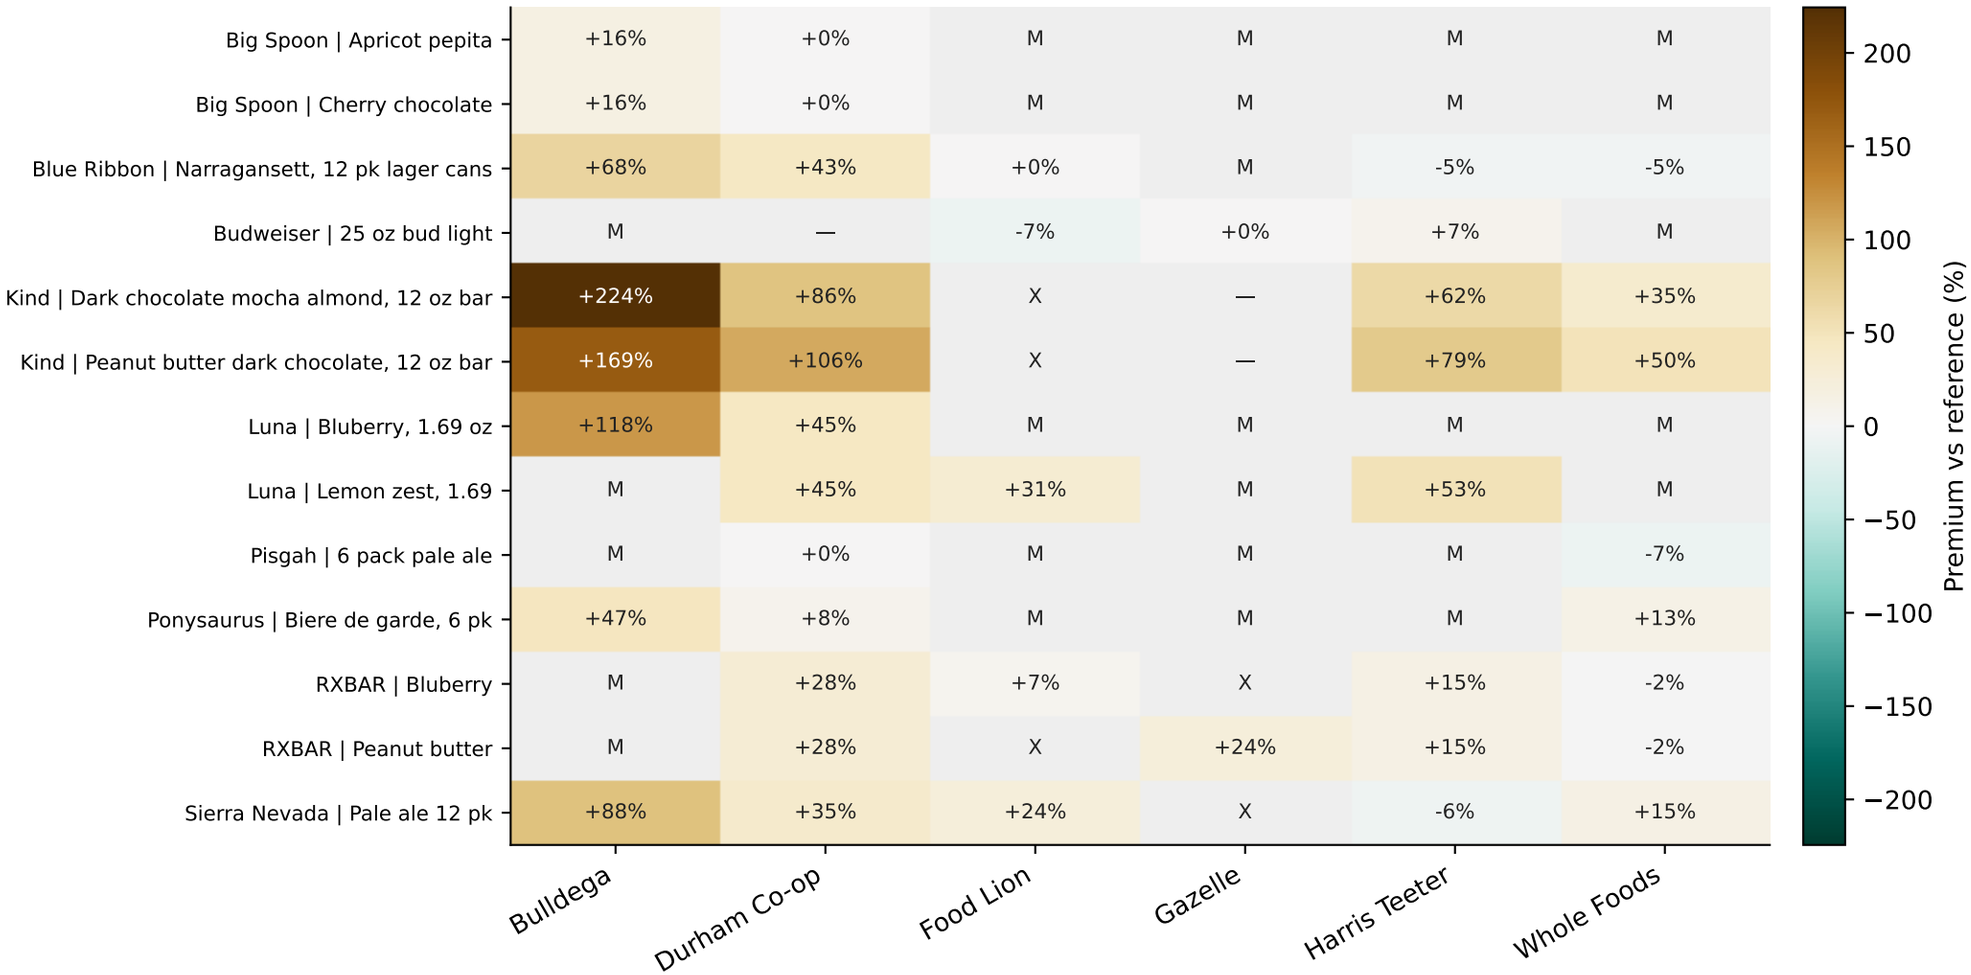
Individual product price premiums



Regular shelf prices; matched products; mixed reference sources; different product baskets across stores.
Small convenience sample; related products may not be independent. Results apply to sampled products and locations.
Cell values: arithmetic percentage change for each product. Rows include products with a reference in the data.
M = no usable regular price; X = excluded substitution/note; R = no reference; — = no recorded row. Grey cells are not zero.